We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, dedicate this annual to the people of Prairie City, as a means of expressing our sincere appreciation for the construction of our new gymnasium. We are also grateful for their loyal support in all of our school activities. We definitely feel that the school and the community are equally a part of each other, and we trust that we will continue to have their support, co-operation and interest for many years to come.

CLASS PROPHECY

One fine spring day in the year of 1960, Old Mother Nature went out on the Plains to see what had happened to all of those clever, promising, little Plainsmen who had left her side some ten years hence. So she set about and by a little discreet question here and a little indiscreet evesdroping there she managed to find out what she wanted to know. The following notations are excerpts from her diary:

"I found Bob Patterson working for the 'Sleepy Mattress Company' in Omaha. He would test the new mattresses by sleeping on them."

"I proceeded on my journey and found that the Colorado State Fair was being held at Denver. I decided to tour Midway and whom should I find but Ronald Bales, owner of the 'Barney Bales' circus, giving his opening speech."

"I thought I might as well go on to California and see if any of those little Plainsmen might have strayed out there. Upon arrival I decided to see the big Pro Football game that was being held in Pasadena between the Los Angeles Rams and the Chicago Bears. The whistle blew and the kick-off was received by the star fullback Gene Vande Lune of Los Angeles who ran 85 yards for a touchdown."

"After the game I proceeded on to Hollywood. There I found Dwight Kennedy running a modeling agency. He was very busy keeping 'good figures' on hand. His most popular model, Regina Sanger, specializes in bathing suits."

"When I reached my hotel, the 'Bell Hop', Lowell Frazer escorted me to my room. After a good nights rest, the maid served my breakfast to me in bed."

"I then left for Arizona and while crossing the Mojave Desert I stopped to watch Larry Beaver trying to launch a 'Rocket Ship' but it refused to take off. With a few minor changes, the Rocket took off, and as far as I know it reached the moon safely."

"I then went on my way and finally reached Arizona. I was a mite hungry so I stopped in a swank restaurant in Phoenix called the "Greasy Spoon" which was operated by Mary Lou Helm. After a long chat with Mary Lou she served me a delicious dinner of Vichyssoise and Roquefort cheese. She informed me that Doris Booth was vacationing at a near by ranch, so I paid Doris a visit."

ranch, so I paid Doris a visit."

"Then I left for Ft. Worth, Texas but my old car conked out and I was forced to stay at a big fruit ranch which, to my astonishment, was owned and operated by Meredith Van Zee. After a breakfast and dinner of grapefruit I decided to try and get to Ft. Worth where I could get something to eat besides grapefruit."

"A filling station was my first stop. Much to my surprise I saw Esther Jabaai, the wife of the station owner."

"My next destination was Stillwater, Oklahoma, where, I had been told, two of the Plainsmen were teaching in Oklahoma A. & M. Sure enough, there I found Mona Van Steenbergen in charge of the music department, and Marilyn Knight teaching physics."

"I started out for the Ozarks in Arkansas because I thought some of those Plainsmen might be hiding in some of the hills down there. I was surely surprised to find Ronald Vande Lune raising 'Razor-Back' hogs."

"I boarded a plane in Little Rock, destined for Indianapolis where the National Championship Auto Races were being held. Whom should I find but Ray McFadden and Jim Welcher competing in the five - hundred mile event."

"The following day found me in Detroit, Michigan where I found Tony Van Horn, a salesman for the General Motors Co. While visiting with Tony, he informed me that Duane Clark operated a large cereal mill in Battle Creek, and offered to drive me there in his new Cheverolet. We toured Duane's mill and had a nice chat with his secretary, Laura Belle French."

"Then we left Battle Creek, destined for Chicago. By this time my shoes were getting thin, and I was badly in need of new ones. I went to Marshall Field's Shoe Store and who should wait on me but Laverna Rouwenhorst. After purchasing a pair of shoes from Laverna I decided to attend the International Livestock Show, which was being held. I got there just in time to see Dwight Churchill carry away the honors in the market division."

"I then started on my last lap home. My plane landed in Newton and I decided to get my bus ticket before roaming around the town. Approaching the ticket window I saw Shirley Walker, the cashier."

"After a short chat with Shirley, I decided to do a little window shopping. Who should I run into but the former Mary Albright. Mary informed me that she and her husband resided in Newton. I gave Mary an account of her former classmates and asked her if she knew where I could find Eunice Enyart and Bob Jennings. She informed me that they were married and living on a farm just a few miles from Newton. She said she would be glad to drive me out there. When we arrived it was just about dinner time and Eunice invited us to stay. We had a nice visit with them and then I decided I had better be on my way."

"On our way back to town, we saw a sign which read, 'Gopher Farm, Owners, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gilbert'. We thought we might, by some chance, find the former Mildred Pulver. Sure enough, as we drove into the yard, Mildred came out to greet us. Our stay was short, because I had to catch my bus."

After I boarded the bus I looked back over my notes, and was pleased with the accomplishments of the Plainsmen.

Football Team

The football team finished the season with a very successful record, 9 victories and 1 loss. Prairie City's twenty game winning streak was halted by a defeat by Woodside. The record for the past three years still stands at 28 victories and only two losses.

The Plainsmen tied with Woodside for the top Central Six-Man League title. They were first in the county and the third best six man team in the state.

All of the boys were mentioned in the All-County selections. Gene Vande Lune made the first All-State team, with Bob Jennings on the Third All-State team, and Max Van Horn, Lionel Wiggins and Bill Timmons receiving honorable mentions on All-State.

TOURNAMENT PLAY

The girls played three games in the County Tournament this year. They downed Mingo 62-28, and Lynnville 49-46. Colfax came up strong in the finals to squeeze past the girls 54-51. This gave us second place rating in the tournament.

They went to Melbourne to play in the Sectional Tournament and came home with the first place trophy after winning four games. Van Cleve was their first victim, 50-32. They then pushed past Shipley 40-19, Mingo 58-42, and downed Melbourne in the finals, 66-39.

Runnells, their first District opponent, proved fatal. After fighting to the finish the girls were losers by a 55-54 score. However, they came back strong to push past Gilman, 57-38 and bring home the Consolation trophy.

Boys Basketball Team

The Prairie City boys boasted a fine season record of ten wins and seven defeats.

The Plainsmen were sidelined early in County play by a strong Lynnville five, 29-42.

In the Sectional Tournament, which was held in Prairie City, the P. C. quintet fell before Colfax in the final game, 30-47.

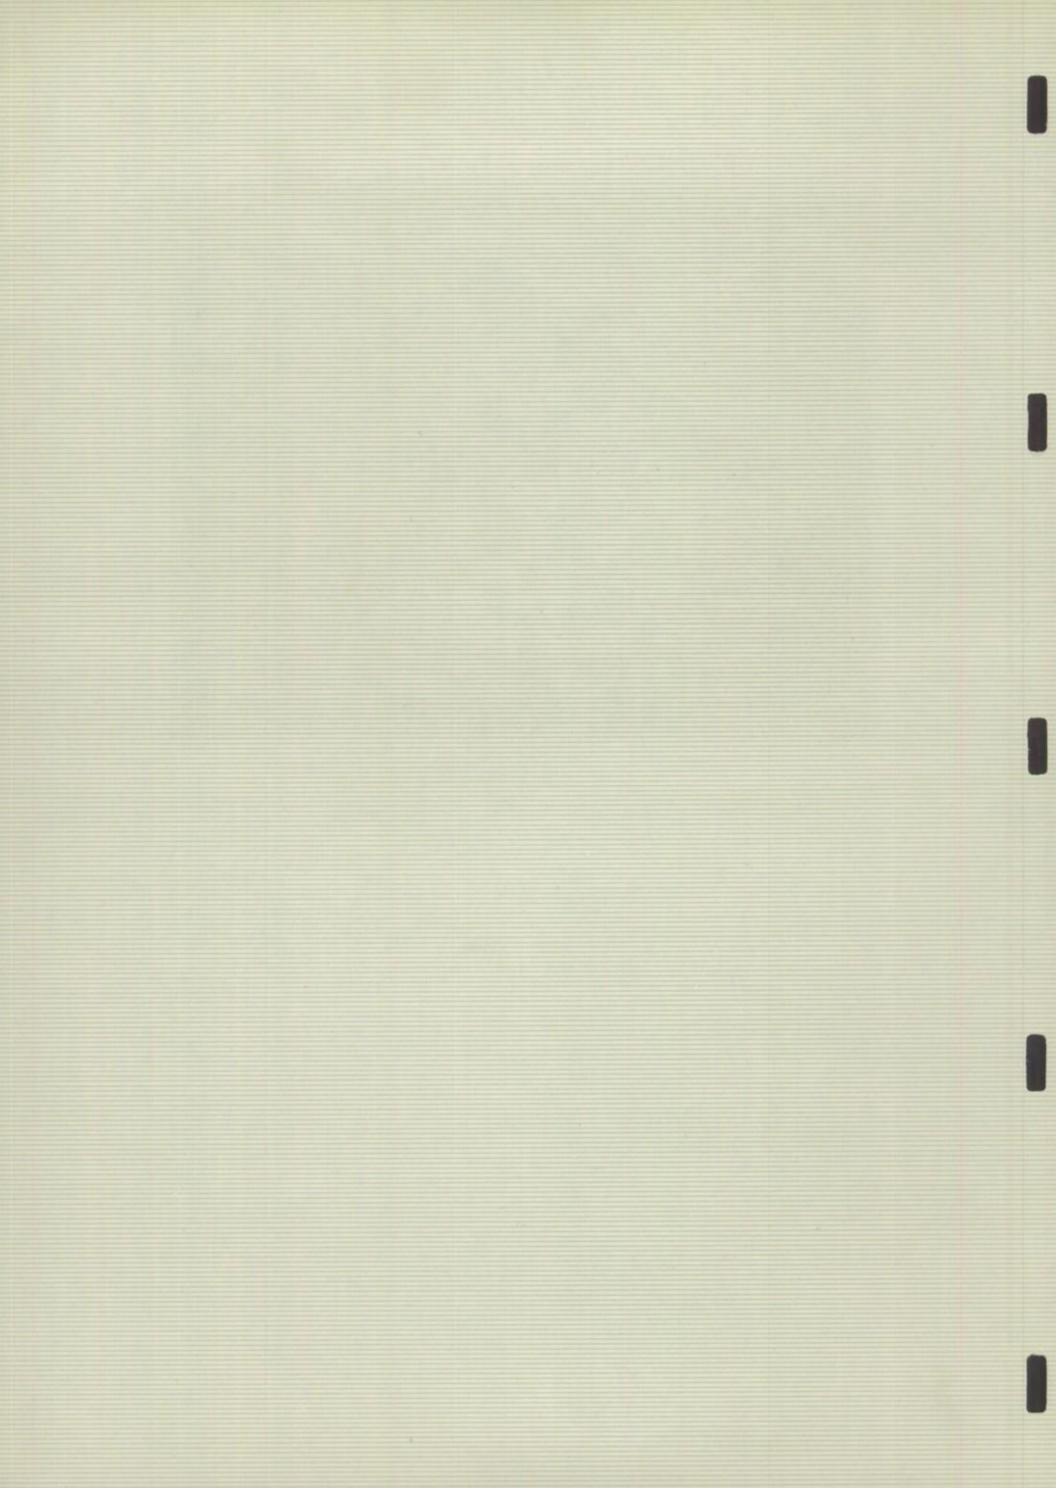

Graduating from the squad are four seniors, Dwight Churchill, Gene Vande Lune, Duane Clark and Lowell Frazer. However, next years outlook is very bright with three lettermen returning. They are; Dick Thompson, Pete Myers and Lowell Wiggins.

The Band is composed of both grade and high school students. Mr. Hefti has done a great deal in making this organization a success. We have played at pep meetings and at many of the home basketball games. The Band has also performed at the musical programs and is looking forward to contest.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus is composed of a combination of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. We organized during the middle of the year and are working on numbers for contest.

Pep Club

The Pep Club now consists of all the High School girls and boys who were interested in joining.

The officers elected were: President - Faye De Reus: Vice-President - Patty Taylor; Secretary - Marjorie Birkenholtz; and, Treasurer - Betty Jo Osborn.

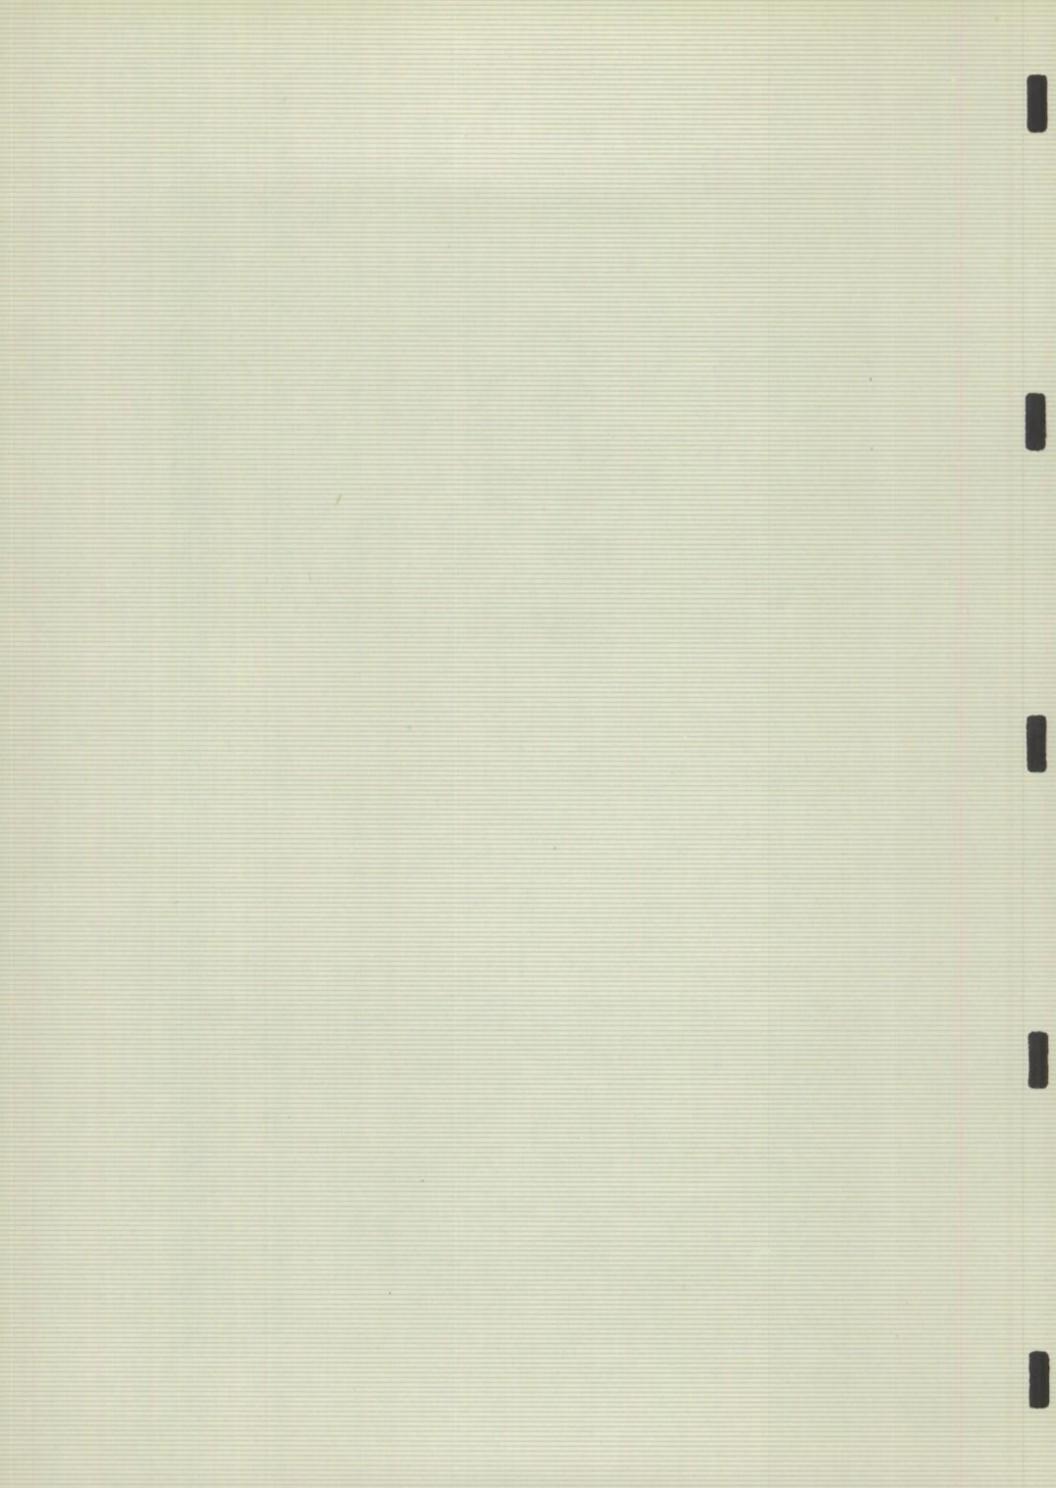

To those students who do not participate in sports, a point system has been set up for earning a letter through the Pep Club. A chart was placed in Mr. Harris's room to keep track of points earned by members during the year. The club sold pencils having the '49-'50 Basketball schedule on them. Mr. Harris, the Pep Club sponsor, purchased pom pons to use at home games in the cheering section which has been reserved for the pep club.

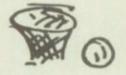

The cheerleaders (shown below) chosen were Betty Jo Osborn, Joann Van Arkel, Patty Roberts and Joyce Jabaai. The four have done an excellent job.

Letter Club

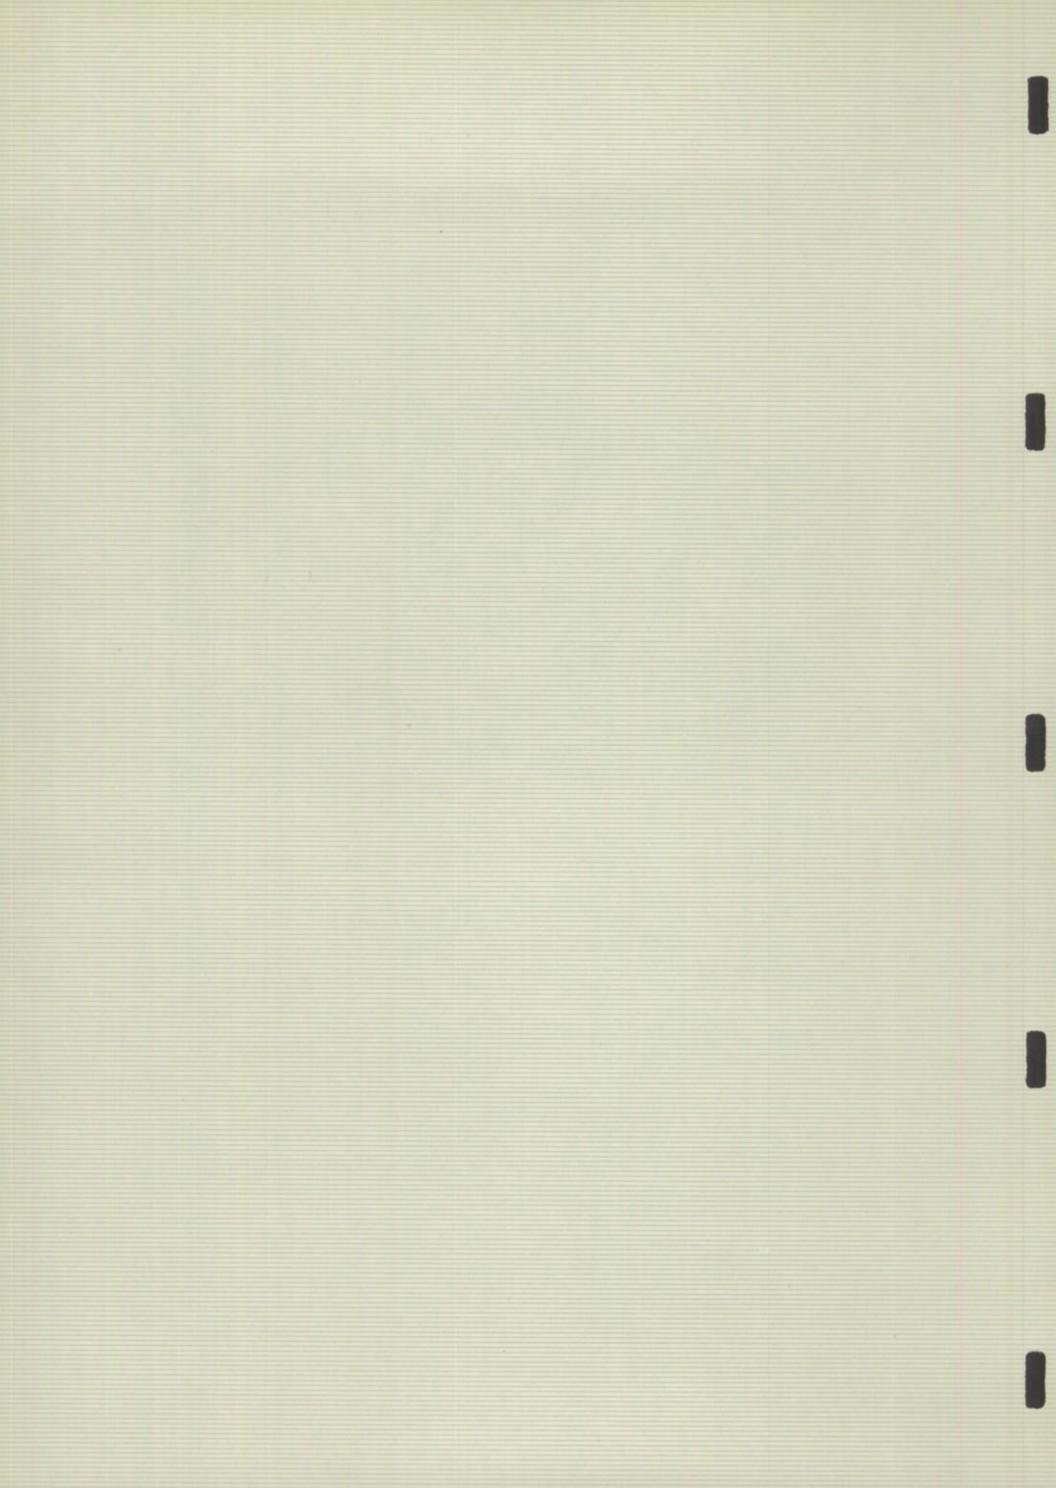

The Letter Club of the Prairie City High School was organized in the early thirties in order to create a greater interest in athletics.

There are three officers: President, Vice President, and Secretary-Treasurer. The Vice President is elected from the Junior class and automatically becomes President the following year. The Secretary-Treasurer may be elected from any class, other than the senior.

The members now holding offices are: President, Gene Vande Lune; Vice-President, Pete Myers; and, Secretary-Treasurer, Gladys Roberts.

Anyone who has been awarded a letter in athletics and has been voted in by two-thirds majority of the old members is eligible for membership in the club. A meeting may be called at any time desired by the president.

The 1949-50 membership consists of 30 students who have earned a letter by participation in football, basketball, baseball or cheerleading.

Junior Class Play

On December 8, 1949, the Junior class presented the three act, comedy play, "Here Comes the Brides".

Madge Burns, Jimmy's sweetheart- - - - Marjorie Birkenholz Aunt Ellen Thompson, Bill's aunt- - - - - Gladys Roberts Jimmy Took, a young bachelor- - - - - - - Bill Timmons Bill Thompson, his buddy- - - - - - - - - - Pete Myers Mr. Oswald, a bill collector- - - - - - - Dick Thompson Uncle Dan Took, Jimmy's wealthy uncle- - - - Darwin Ruggles Peg Westfield, his ward- - - - - - - Faye DeReus Mrs. Duvalle Smythe, an ambitious young woman- -Joyce Jabaai "Bubbles" Duvalle, her sister- - - - Delores Vander Leest Lady Macbeth, a stranger from Green Gables- - - Lorena Roorda McDaniel, a nurse from Green Gables- - - Lawrence Verwers

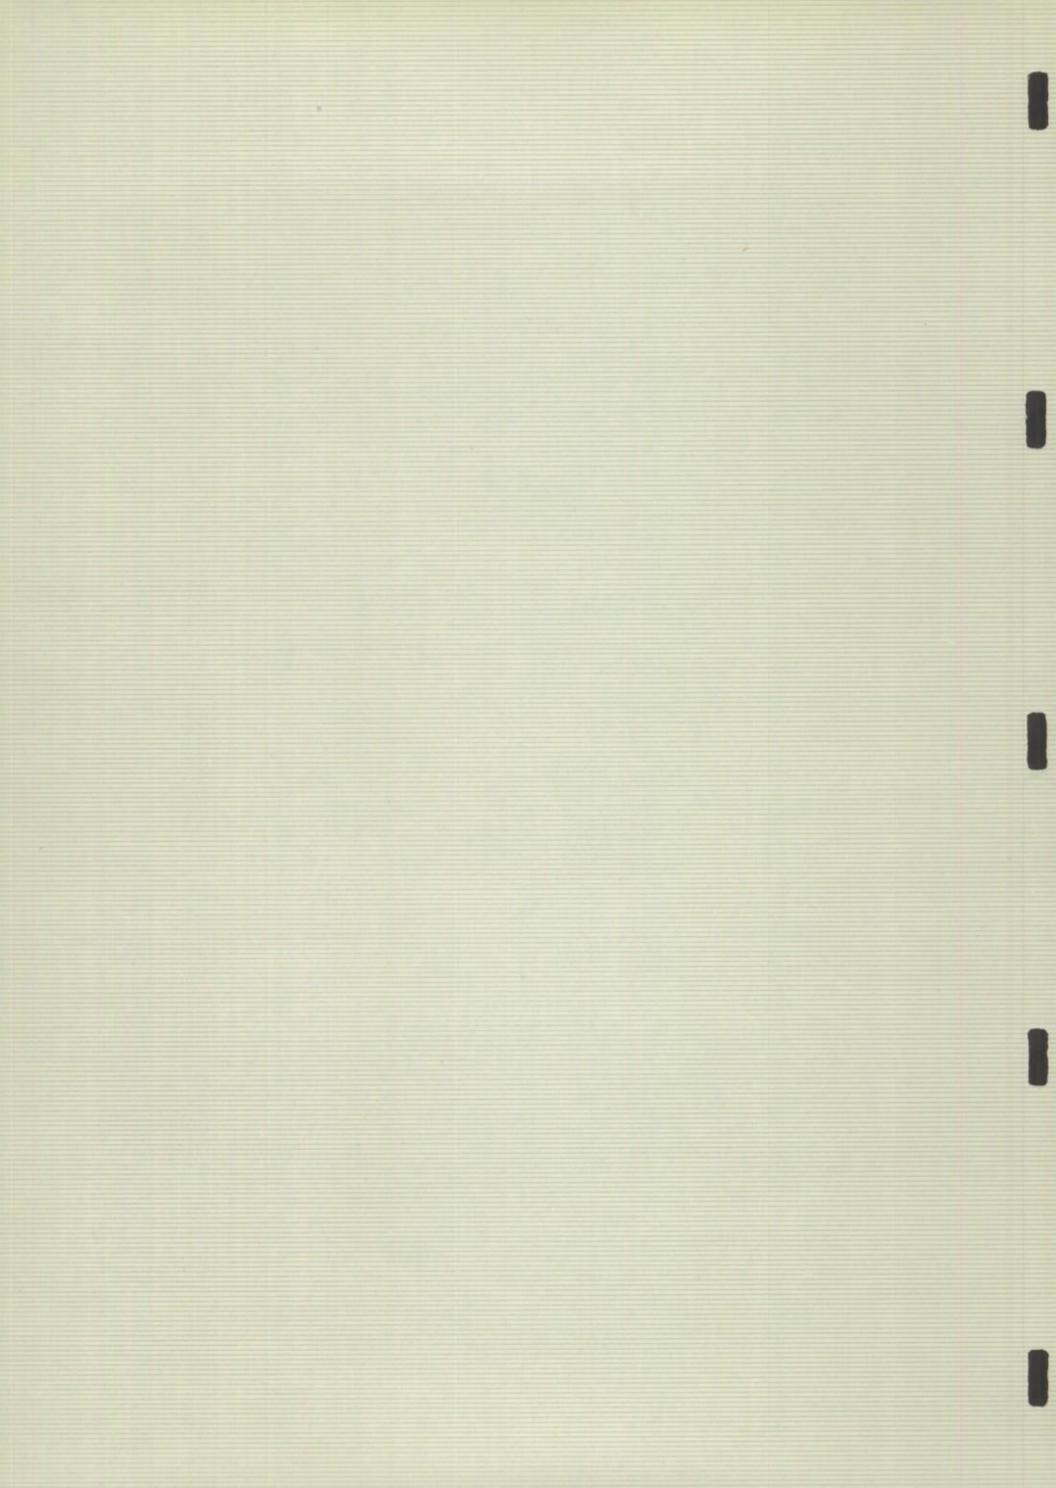

Jimmy Took, a young bachelor, needs a wife in a hurry to prove to his generous Uncle Dan that his monthly check for the support of Jimmy's misguided scheming, three imitation brides appear -- two of them men dressed as women and the other his sweetheart Madge Burns. The situation is even further complicated with the mysterious Lady Macbeth and nurse McDaniel from Green Gables.

Senior Class Play

On May 4,1950, the Senior Class presented the three-act comedy, "Strictly Formal".

Jane, who hasn't a date for the banquet- - - - Regina Sanger Sally, her best friend- - - - - - - - - Marilyn Knight Agnes, maid of all work- - - - - - - - - - - Mildred Pulver Andrew Cutler, Jane's father - - - - - Dwight Churchill Nettie Cutler, Jane's mother - - - - - - - - Eunice Enyart Mr. Ahern, a neighbor- - - - - - - - - Lowell Frazer Jim, Sally's boy friend- - - - - - - - - Dwight Kennedy Rose Tilton, who gets the mumps- - - - - Laverna Rouwenhorst Josie, her kid sister- - - - - - - - - - - - - Shirley Walker Mrs. Tilton, their mother- - - - - - - - - Doris Booth Elroy, who likes to put the shot- - - - - - Gene Vande Lune George, whom Jane is sweet on- - - - - - - - - - - Bob Jennings Marcia, a triple-threat from New York- -Mona Van Steenbergen Cindy Collins, a girl with ideas -- -- -- -- Mary Albright Marilyn, who is after Elroy- - - - - - - - - - Laura French - - - - - - - - Bob Patterson Lt. Bob Cunningham - - - -

With the Senior Banquet only seven days away, Jane and Sally still have no dates-George and Jim haven't said a word. But their worries are only beginning, for Sally's house guest, Marcia, snares one man right after the other with the old "go-gettem" tactics. That is, everyone except Elroy, who is constantly practicing the shot-put, but who isn't as dumb as he seems. Then the home-front girls get reinforcements, for Cindy arrives -- horn, suit case, hatbox, and self. Cindy is a movie fan and ready to solve any problem on the basis of how Ginger Rogers landed Fred Astaire. By the time George and Marcia get back from the show, Cindy has Jane stretched out artistically on the sofa, rigged out in her mother's loveliest negligee, dead white, and apparently close to death! George is scared --- till Marcia suggests that Jane has mumps! George beats it! But Cindy is not through fixing things. Her next venture collides with the alleged case of mumps. Then Elroy puts the shot into the prize peony bed, and what started as a mild worry about who dates whom to the Senior Banquet, becomes a war of Dads and Peonies, shot-puts, mumps, movies, and a heart-warming, laughter-crammed evening.

MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN

During the month of November the students of the Prairie City High School along with the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades conducted a very successful magazine campaign. The seventh grade brought in the most money. The high salesman was Max Caldwell.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

During the course of the year we have had three assembly programs. At our first program we had a representative from the Bell Telephone Company who explained the use of Coaxial Cables.

Our second program was conducted by Mr. Wilson from New Sharon, with his collection of phonographs. He started his collection several years ago as a hobby but has now developed it into a profession.

At our last program our guests were Rev. Lawrence Lacour, his wife Mildred, Lois Seashore and Leontine Ostlund. Rev. Lacour, who is a Methodist Evangelist, gave a talk on the problems of boys and girls. Mildred, Lea and Lois presented a short musical program.

Jokes

The little diamond sparkled beautifully as the newlyengaged girl held out her hand to show her ring to one of her old schoolmates.

"My," exclaimed the latter, "I'll bet all of your friends admire that."

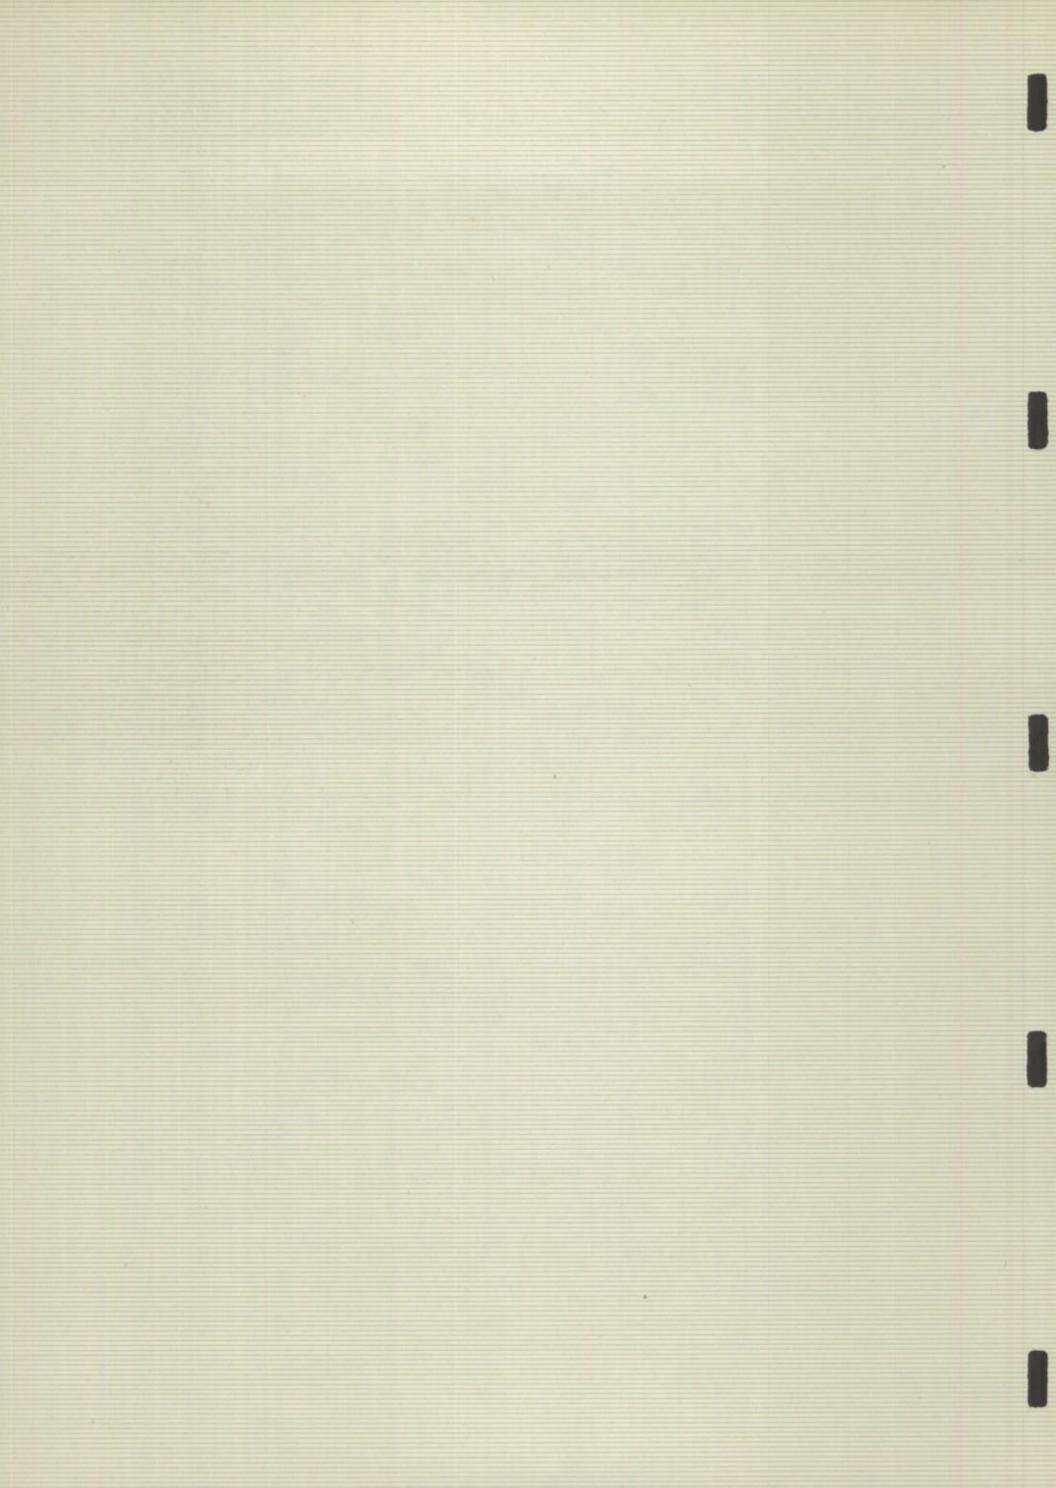

"Yes," said the girl, 'and three of them recognized it."

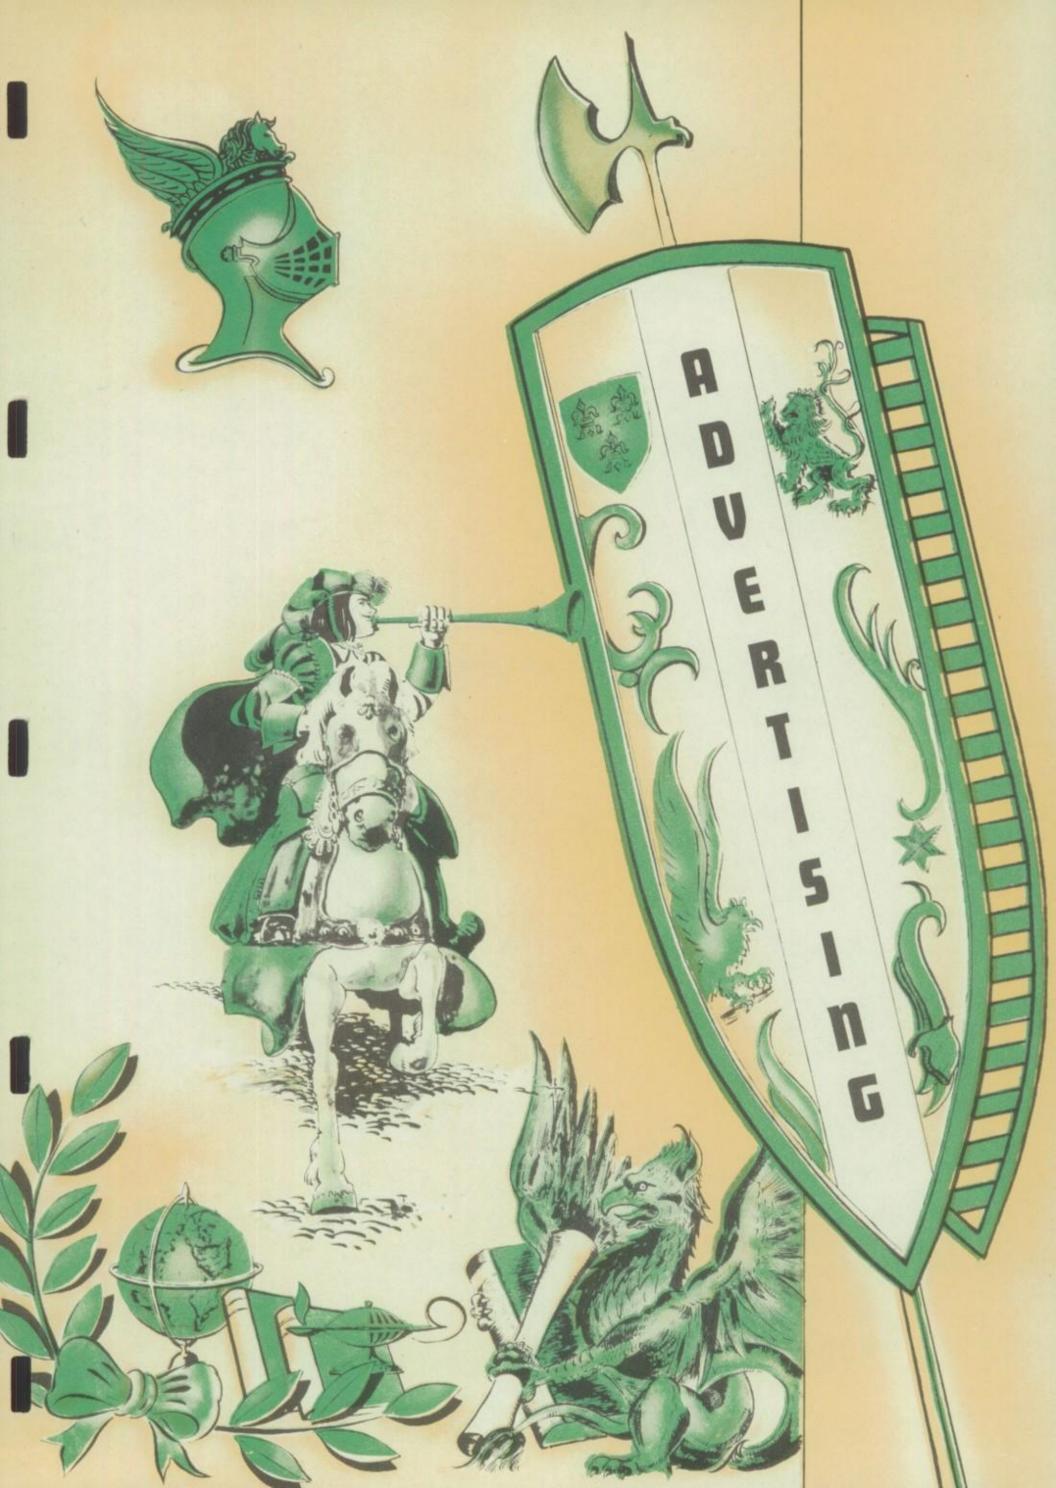

Fiance--"This is the second time I've had to postpone my wedding. Do you think it's bad luck to do that?" Best Man--"Not if you keep on doing it."

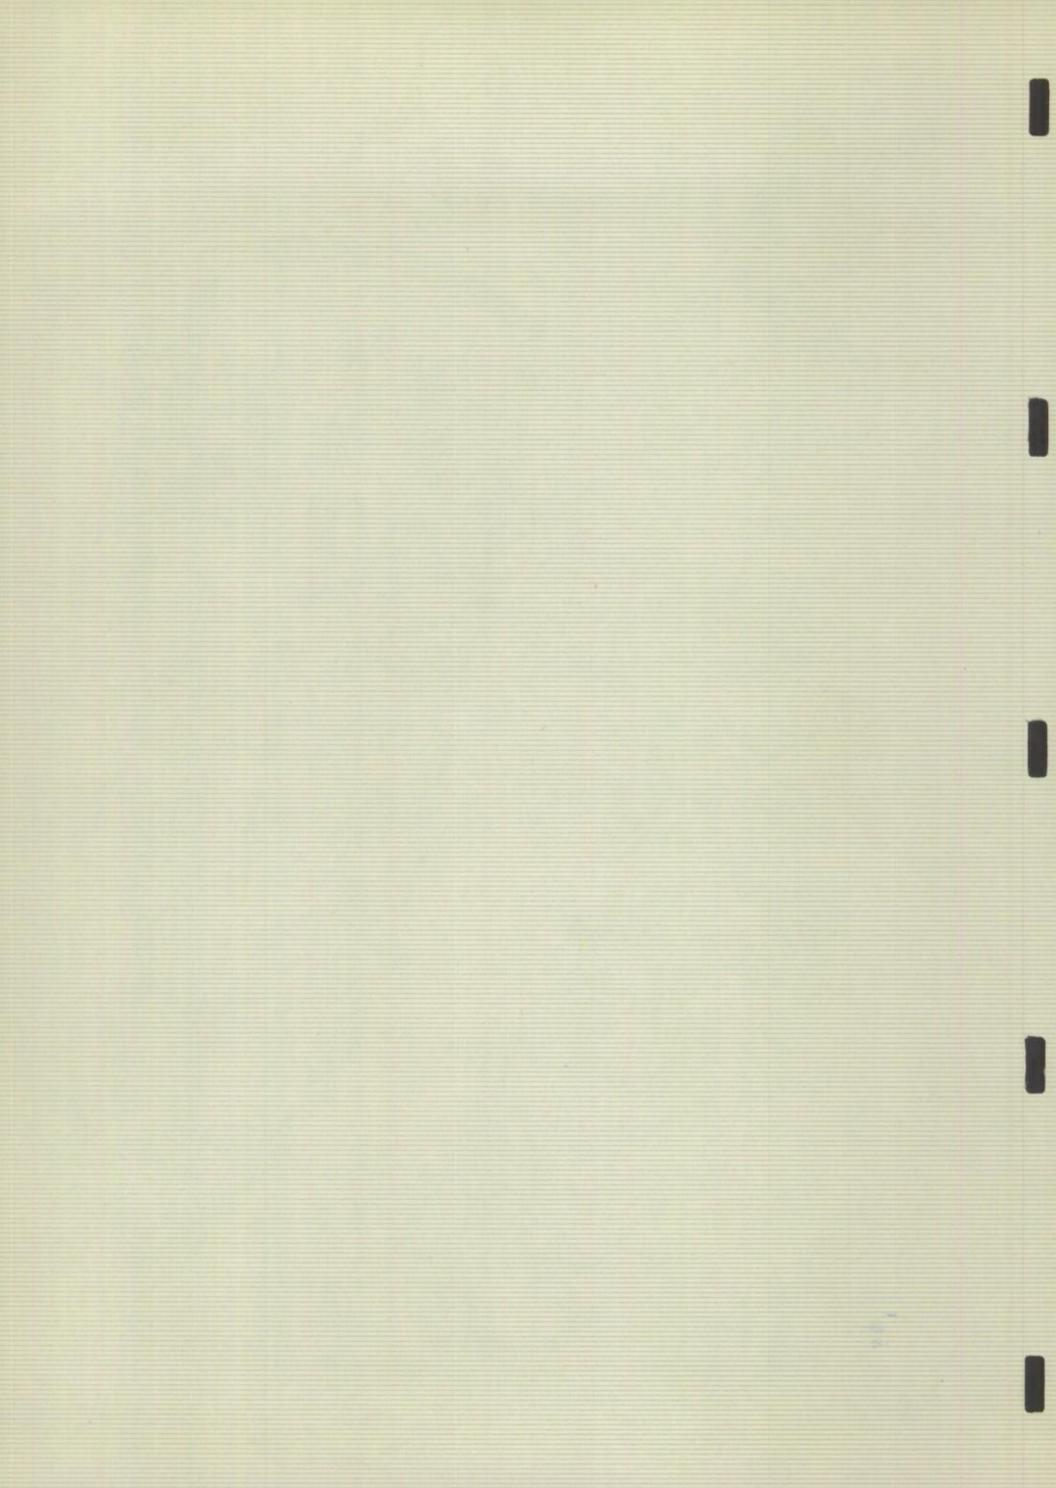

"Why, darling," exclaimed the pretty young wife's husband, "your face is quite red. Are you blushing?"
"Well, yes," she replied, "a strange man just asked me for a kiss."

"The nerve of him," he roared indignantly. "You slapped his face, I presume?"

"No, I couldn't. I was afraid of hitting my own."
